

Meow (Furry Erotica)

What did you say your name was? Principal Foster asked again. Meow, I told him, again. After being expelled from two schools, Meow's parents take her and move across the country, hoping for a new beginning. A girl who thinks she is, and acts like a cat, Meow doesn't get along too well with the other students in the school. But things in this new town start to look up. The school's principal is lenient with Meow's differences, and there's even a meet-up group for other people like Meow--people who act and dress like animals. But despite moving all the way across the country, Meow's bad fortune starts to find her again, and in a big way. Meow is a hot 6,200-word erotica book, featuring hot adult content of the furry persuasion. All the characters in this book are over the age of eighteen.
