

A Virgin for Two Brothers (The Virgin Auctions series Book 2)

No one willingly offered themselves up to be in the Virgin Auctions, no one except McKenna Grey. With her mother ill and her fathers business destitute, its up to her to become one of the virgins placed on the bidding block. If she has any hope of earning enough money to save her family, she must make sure shes appealing to bidders. She is whisked away without ever setting eyes on the man who won her. Not knowing if her new husband will be gentle or cruel, McKenna can only think about being strong in order to bring her family out of desolation. But the truth of who really bought her has her rethinking everything because it isnt just one man who bought her but two, and they are the only men she has ever lusted after.
