

Kirstine Roepstorff: The Inner Sound that Kills the Outer

The mixed-media collages of Kirstine Roepstorff (born 1972) spill over with messy glee. Over the past decade, Roepstorff has built up a large body of collage work that stages and dismantles the imagery of our times, drawing out themes of disinformation, media theory and feminism. She often coheres her collage narratives through archetypal characters, which come to the fore in her new mechanical theater installation, Stille Teater (Quiet Theater), documented here alongside essays and an interview with the artist.
