Will Glover, who spends his days picking in a 19th century, Scottish coal pit, realizes the girl who used to throw rocks at his back now frustrates him in a whole new way. Lucie, with her luxurious, rose-scented hair and penetrating green eyes, torments Will's heart while they dance a reel to ring in the New Year. Will sees a happy future in her eyes they'll wed, and she'll bear him sons to work aside him down the mine. Will can't live without kissing her smiling lips at celebrations end.

The Kissing Reel When Lucie skips toward Will with a hanky clutched in her hand, a sweetness breaks against his heart like a wave curling to the shore. Lucie flips her sassy head around, skips past, turns back, gives him a saucy look, and drops the hanky. Will scoops it up, races round the ring of jeering dancers, needing to catch Lucie and kiss her pink mouth more than breath. Click Look Inside the Book or send a free sample to your Kindle and read the fate of that kiss! (Enjoy 6 free chapters.) A Romantic Historical Novel God seems to smile on their young love, but sinister forces arise and threaten to destroy it. Will's father with secret dreams of pioneering coal mines in the Americas binds the family to a stranger searching Ayrshire for the best colliers to fill his ship. over Will with a thousand tender eyes. He whispers his thanks to the Good Lord for lighting his way. Will says, No sooner has the prayer left my lips than I am filled with dread.
