

Animated Objects

This collection of science fiction, fantasy and horror poetry and short stories includes an introduction from Barry N. Malzberg and the short story, Little Red in the Hood, which appeared on Ellen Datlow's Honorable Mention list in Tenth Annual Year's Best Fantasy & Horror. Animated Objects takes you from the Outside to deep Inside Linda Addison's imagination. Each chapter invites the reader to journey into a universe of the fantastic. The path is paved with light and darkness, like life, but the true center lies in The Prelude. The last section, journal entries, is a peek into the workings of a writer's mind. In entries from 63 hand-written journals lie the beginnings of poems, starts and endings to stories, observations and life lists. Become part of the journey. In the end, love is all that matters.
