

Becoming a Mediator: Your Guide to Career Opportunities

Mediation is becoming a popular way to resolve legal disputes -- and the need for qualified mediators is growing by leaps and bounds. If you're ready to explore a profession in this rapidly expanding field, start with Becoming a Mediator. This book is not only your guide to all the different career paths you can follow -- it helps you evaluate whether a career in mediation is right for you. Written for both lawyers and laypersons, Becoming a Mediator provides:

- *a complete overview of what mediation is
- *information on where to get training and certification
- *practical advice about finding -- or creating -- work
- *examinations of careers in mediation, mediation support and mediation-related fields
- *sample rules and standards of conduct

This book also includes state-by-state listings of mediation offices, plus a nationwide listing of mediation organizations and services.
