

A Little More Line: A Kites View of Wisconsin & Beyond

A Little More Line has stunning images taken from an unusual perspective: a camera suspended from a kite and operated by remote control. Wilson's photographs are from a real birds eye view and reveal a fresh new perspective. Scenes from around Wisconsin and over the borders into Michigan, Minnesota, Iowa, and Illinois include capitols and bike races, farms and forests, Apostle Islands National Lakeshore, Chicagos Millennium Park, and Iowas Field of Dreams, Duluths harbor and Horicon National Wildlife Refuge.
