You can spread your evil seeds in other fertile fields, and I will spread my seed in yours! Dr. Maria Powers is a scientist working on a compound to increase plant fertility. When an idealistic eco-warrior storms her lab and causes her to mix the wrong chemicals, she learns that the plants aren't the only things aching to be fertilized in her lab. WARNING: This 4,000+ word story contains graphic language and activity including sex pollen, breeding and impregnation sex, lactation and explicit descriptions of mind blowing pleasure between a beautiful young scientist and a sexy eco-warrior. Intended for MATURE AUDIENCES 18+ only! EXCERPT: You're crazy if you think I'm telling you anything! I snapped, becoming acutely aware of the rising temperature in the room. A sweet smell permeated the air, like honey mixed with some unidentifiable spice. A pale gold mist was rising from the mixed vials, and, instead of feeling alarm like any sane person would I began feeling... aroused. All characters are over 18 and fictional**
