 beautiful scenery on a trip, taking out a camera, only to find the battery is dead. Wanting to take a nap on Sunday, but the noise from next door causes me irritation. Dressing up, trying to be more feminine, but finding out the only perfume I have is lavender. Having fries in the fast food restaurant, but the taste is always the same ... In life, unpleasant things always happen! The queen of ideas, Jasmine, looks at unpleasant, inconvenient and dissatisfying things that happen in her life in a very simple way, and proposes a bunch of seemingly ridiculous and impossible solutions. If you are like Jasmine, the questions are often asked in specific ways, the solutions are always abstract. This note book can accompany you to find some fun in ordinary life, even to identify potential business opportunities.
