

Finding Love at Christmas

My name is Serenity. I'm a single 28-year-old middle school teacher here in Mississippi. I'm usually fine with that until Christmas rolls around. This Christmas proves to be a little different, though. I met Tramorris aka Tray, a 21-year-old college football standout that is starting to make it look a lot like Christmas! He's a young thang, but trust me, he's all grown. He's the perfect gift for me, but you know there has to be some drama, right? My best friend, Andrea, is in town and wants me all to herself. She loves me and doesn't want to share the time that we have together. I've missed her so much, but I can't deny my feelings for Tray. I'm drawn to Tray. I eventually figured out a way to intertwine all of our lives. I thought it was the perfect solution, but I was wrong. Friendships and relationships are two things that should never intertwine and I learned that the hard way. I've heard of crazy love triangle drama, but I never thought I would be at the center of one. In a season of love, happiness, and cheer, I can't help but wonder if I'm ever going to get my Christmas wish to fall in love.
