

Real Seniors Using iPads: Over 100 Fun, Easy Ways to Learn Connect Communicate

REAL SENIORS USING IPADS is a collection of 31 interviews with seniors between the ages of 66 and 101 who are using their iPads and loving them. Eleven of the contributors, including an 87-year old, are in business and use their iPads and iPhones to handle office affairs. Others use their iPads to share photos, take online classes, handle health challenges, enjoy a vast array of entertainment, the news, and so much more. You'll discover Apps (applications) that suit your lifestyle. You'll also learn more ways to use your iPad for anything you need: from getting FREE BOOKS to navigating your way around town with ease. The intent of the book is to inspire seniors who are reticent to be using iPads they may have received as gifts as well as to give new ideas to existing iPad users. The underlying theme is that it is easy and fun to use the iPad, particularly to be and stay in communication with family and friends. The book includes best ways of being in communication and with random tips and a few basic tutorials on some of the aspects of using the iPad that the contributors were unaware of. Once reading what other seniors are doing readers of any age will be motivated to try new things. They may also learn new ways of being creative. REAL SENIORS USING IPADS will also appeal to the iPhone users since so much of what's possible is similar. Sheila Finkelstein, the author, brings to the book her experience in the arts and technology, teaching and coaching, and almost 15 years on the Internet. Her current work is in Technology For Seniors Made Easy. Her passion is that we each Treasure Our Lives Now and the iPad certainly makes the available in so many different ways.... with ease!
