

The Nurse: Mail Order Bride: (Sweet Western Romance)

Aunt Alice, please dont make me go. I promise not to do whatever it is you think Ive done again. Please. Becky Smythe was begging as her Aunt was packing her bags. Weve been through this, Becky, dear. I cant take care of you anymore. I dont have the money and Im just too tired. Its for the best. Now, do as youre told and be kind to Mr. Kessler. It was bad enough that Becky and her sister lost their parents and had to live with their aunt, but to make matters worse, she made it very clear they were not welcomed. Becky was being sent away, sold into marriage. Can it get any worse for her? This is a clean, sweet western romance. No bad language or inappropriate circumstances.
