

FAYES AWAKENING

This is a story of 24,000 words and ten chapters that narrates the sexual awakening of an eighteen year old in the Victorian period. It includes spanking, anal masturbation and sex between women. Do not read if any of this might offend you. Faye is a girl coming on nineteen years old, but still viewed by many in her small village as a child. Her habit of preferring to play than to work doesn't further her cause, until a female artist moves into her small village and begins broadening the girl's outlook - specifically towards sexual matters. The local priest is there, taking advantage of the situation. The local doctor is not far behind for both to find Faye is eager to take on all that might mark her as an adult. Finally there are the local boys with whom she grew up, and while she might be too shy - the artist is not.
