

Blackness Takes Over (The Blackness Series Book 1)

Shannon Kellys life has been anything but typical. Her life has been altered viciously at the hands of others twice. However horrible they have been, its these changes that have given her a family and careernow possibly love. The last thirteen years she has been supported and loved by her protector, her entertainer, and her comforter, but never a lover. When Dylan Kellerman enters Shannons life he changes its course in more ways than one. He gives her hope and promise of a future she was convinced wasnt attainable. Just as she begins to believe she has finally turned her life into something she can build a future onblackness takes over.
