

The Vikings Reluctant Lover (The Vikings Virgin Slave Book 1)

When a rampaging band of marauders sets the small village of Aventine-on-Thames afire, virginal Leta runs for her life - straight into the muscled arms of Ragnar Thyrsson, a mighty Viking with lust as insatiable as he is dominant. Leta fights, she kicks and screams, but in the end, the warriors desire overwhelms her and she gives in to both his passion, and to hers. Excerpt: Finn, Hrolfgar, Tyr, Vorix, he barked, go. Go ahead. Well catch up. He turned back to me and his hands immediately went to either side of my face. Hard, callused and hot, his fingers traced lines down my slender face. Despite myself, despite what he had done, or not done to my village, I couldnt help but be taken with Ragnar. The way he towered above me, how he spoke softly, but with tremendous force, in his curious accent. And of course, those eyes that drew me in and refused to let me go. Turn, he said. As he watched, I slowly turned in a circle, becoming very aware of exactly how tattered my clothing was. Not much left of it after my run through the forest. A tatter of my underclothes remained, little more than a rag. Along with a shred of cloth that approximated half a cloak around my shoulders and my torso, that all I had shielding me from the elements, and from the Vikings penetrating gaze. When I returned to face him, the coldness of his stare had gone, replaced by something wilder, almost unhinged. The left corner of Ragnars mouth curled in a grin and he took a step closer to me. His hand warmed my side where all the cloth had been ripped away. He touched the side of my face with the other, then my neck. Shivers wracked my body. Never in my life had a man seen me in such a state. Never had I felt such a hungry, powerful touch. And never before had I wanted anything as badly as I wanted this huge warrior to rip away the rest, push me face down and ravish me.
