

Mr. Perfect, or Mr. Right? (Friend Zone Book 3)

From the Publisher that brought you popular short story romances Witching Call, Hostile Hearts, Earthbound Angels, January Morrison Psychic Files, Ralphs Gift, Eve Snow Psychic P.I., In the Blood, Sex Demons, The Halloween Awakening, The Whispering, and Seasons of Love. Now, here is Friend Zone...Do you change your mind, or do you stick with it?Mr. Perfect, Or Mr. Right?What if? A question that betrayed the uncertainty of a decision already made. The question that pops up in a persons head in spite of the situation going great. A question that festers in the back of ones mind, resulting in endless second guesses that eventually consumes the one who asks.Laila has already turned down Erics offer. She rejects his advances flat out. Yet, he hasnt given up. But what will he do when another man comes along? Witty, intelligent, driven, and ambitious, Vince seems to be the perfect man. Vince and Laila become an item soon enough. It shocked Eric. Even Ashley is shocked.Then Eric disappearsnot a word is spoken, not a text message sent, not even a Facebook status to give anyone a clue where he is. This is nothing new but is the longest. Has she finally driven him away?Although adamant that Eric will return like he always did, she begins to doubt it herself. In his absence, she begins to miss him terribly. And just as she is about to accept that he probably has given up on her, Eric pops up.Will he still continue to pursue her, or will he be content with being friend zoned?Yet the question remains. What if?Warning: This story contains adult themed graphical descriptions that a small number of readers might find offensive, including sexual acts and suggestive themes.EXCERPTIts Eric, isnt it?Once more, Laila didnt respond. The sudden drooping of her expression and the sadness that heavily clouded her already distant eyes were more than enough. Ashley let out a long, audible expletive.I guess this was bound to happen, Ashley started once more. Laila kept silent, but the increase in her breathing boded for something that was about to come soon. Ashley knew it was the only way for Laila to talk about it, so she pushed some more. Listen, I'm not gonna say I'm not happy for him because I am. I will however not say that I don't feel for you. I can't possibly weigh what's going on inside you right now, continued Ashley. She let her words hang. She needed them to sink in. Already, she saw the tears in Laila's eyes almost spilling over. There were coming. We both know he deserves to be happy. He is a great man, and he deserves what he has now, Ashley added carefully. We both should be happy for him. I miss him, too. Ashley deliberately added the last statement as bait. She smiled to herself when she saw Laila gripping her knees. She observed her shoulders rise longer than it falls. She saw the corners of her mouth twitch. When a series of breaths came in quick succession, Ashley knew she had succeeded. I don't miss him! Laila exploded, her tears simultaneously pouring. I don't fucking miss him! I love him! Other Books: 1) A Wild Nights Encounter 2) To Date? Or Not to Date? 4) I Do! I Do! Download and discover why readers are raving about C.J. McLane.
