

Have I Said Too Much?: My Life In and Out of The Model Agency

An inspirational and revealing memoir from Carole White, co-founder of highly successful Premier Model Management. There are model agents, and there is Carole White. Every decade in Carole White's life has been extraordinary, from her childhood in Colonial Ghana, her rebellious teenage years and own modeling career, to spending 30 years at the helm of her iconic London agency Premier. Christy, Naomi, Linda, Claudia, Cindy White has shaped the careers of the most superlative names ever to grace a catwalk and was at the center of the 1990s supermodel storm in all its glory, drama, and excess. There have been landmark court cases, size zero debates, tantrums, and triumphs. Carole has opinions and she's not afraid to share them. Carole gives the reader access to the realities behind the glamorous world of modeling, as well as sharing such personal stories as her side of the highly publicized blood diamond court trial, in which she gave evidence against former client and good friend Naomi Campbell. Here is the frank and revealing story of the grande dame of modeling, as well as an exclusive insight into this thrilling, glamorous, and chaotic industry.
