INTRODUCTION This Flight Training Instruction provides you amplifying information covering Confined Area Landings, Tactical Flight Maneuvers, External Load Operations, Pinnacle Landings, Search and Rescue Procedures, Shipboard Operations, Formation Flight, and Section Low-Level Navigation. You have to draw upon and apply the fundamentals you have learned from the previous modules of instruction to successfully complete this module. The concept of tactical operations and formation flight are the capstones of this stage. The objective of tactical operations is to show the versatility of helicopter operations within the fleet and various mission capabilities. The objective of formation flying is to employ and control multiple aircraft flying in close proximity to accomplish an assigned mission in a manner that will minimize the effectiveness of enemy opposition.

SCOPE This publication contains maneuvers introduced in the Formation and Tactics stages of the Advanced Helicopter Master Curriculum Guide. It is your responsibility to have a thorough knowledge of its contents.
