

Miles Before I Sleep

Miles Before I Sleep Andrea James always knew she would trade her fathers wealth for marriage to a titled gentlemanher social climbing mother had drummed it into her head since she was old enough to walk and talk. All the best tutors and schools money could buy had prepared her for her position into which she would soon marry. Sebastian James had other plans for his only child. He refused to give his daughter or fortune to a man of privilege, who had never worked a day in his life. When Andrea discovers her father has betrothed her without her mothers knowledge, she runs awayright into the arms of her fiances cousin.
