

Elliott County Visual Artists: Come Celebrate Our Diversity

The Elliott County Heritage Arts Network wanted to honor the artists that were born, lived in, or are now a part of the Elliott County Kentucky area. So, the local arts council decided to publish this book about the people of our area, Elliott County, who have made a name for themselves in the visual arts field. Sharon Boggs, President of our local arts council collected and wrote the stories about the visual artists ...we hope you enjoy it.
