

Claims Against Uninsured and Untraced Drivers: Law and Procedure

The Motor Insurance Bureau typically handles almost 50,000 claims each year against uninsured and untraced motorists. This work is set to become the definitive text on these claims, covering the theory, practice and procedure in a practical and accessible style. It combines stage-by-stage discussion of claims procedure with detailed discussion of case law, the basis in law of MIB liability and the various MIB Agreements. * A comprehensive work guiding practitioners through both the theory and practice of claims involving the MIB * Deals with all issues related to uninsured and untraced drivers claims * Includes the Agreements themselves and related case law
