the devils kick: Our Children Unprotected is a true story that takes place in rural Montana. It is a fast moving legal drama exposing serious injustices committed against our children. The story evolves around a mothers legal battle to seek justice and resolution for her own inter-family illicit situation. This personal memoir exposes this crime for what it truly is -- and our legal failure to protect all of our children. This book as a plea for public awareness, a plea for fairness in our oft times overworked judicial system... a plea on behalf of all of our children. If you have a child or know a child, this book is a must-read.
