

The Ultimate California Dog Bite & Animal Attack Legal Survival Guide

If you or someone you love has been injured in any type of accident, I want you to know that you have my sympathy. As an injured accident victim myself, I understand the pain and feeling of helplessness that comes with being in an accident. I also understand the journey to recovery first hand. I wrote this book to explain the mysteries surrounding a California dog bite or animal attack injury case, and what you can do to educate yourself in the process. It is my belief that if you know the information presented in this book you will have a better understanding of your dog or animal attack case, and you will also know what questions you will need to ask your lawyer in order to help bring justice to your dog or animal attack case. Learn about the biggest mistakes that can ruin your dog or animal attack case by having this powerful information first! San Diego-based personal injury attorney Mark C. Blane has been representing injury victims in California since 1999. He has seen injury cases of all types-from very minor accidents to accidents that have left victims permanently impaired. Thus, many injured persons know little or nothing about their legal rights and how to go about getting fair compensation for their injuries.
