He knows he should break it off, but theres something about her that draws him to her. Now he just needs to figure out what that something is. Livies thankful when her husband suddenly stops trying to make moves on her, but when she figures out why, shes surprised at how much it bothers her. She knows it shouldnt. Their marriage is business only, after all. Shes all but expected Blayne to find women to warm his bed. She just never thought it would be her sister. And she never thought she would care.
